Doug,

This is the Buckingham Market Decision. It's eye-opening to read, and seems to be detrimental to Adlife because we're associated with Liebowitz.

I don't think so. I was afraid to send it Friday. I finally read the whole thing through. I had to keep taking breaks on Friday because I knew it was bad, but I wanted to find out about all of the other cases also.

It's just awful. Did you read the footnotes also? The Judge lumps Adlife in with Liebowitz. We need to distance ourselves from him.

Doug,

Just give me one second. I want to make sure you and I are highlighting the same things to point out to Joel.

Yep, we're on the same page. I think the only thing I had highlighted that you didn't was under conclusion where it says he's ordered to pay the $1,000 within 7 days, and that all parties were supposed to be served a copy of the Memorandum-Decision.

If the clerk served him a copy of it in accordance with the local rules, then he's known for MONTHS that he's been misleading us with the status of this case.
